1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 2-8, 13 and 14, drawn to an optical component comprising at least one retarder having embedded therein a plurality of images, with separate retarder/images details (i.e., a plurality of retarders each independently having the same or different retardation values, a plurality of images having specific image patterns each having a different optical axis from the other specific image patterns, the images are contained in alternate areas or the images are contained in successive parallel stripes).

Group II, claim(s) 9-12, drawn to a viewing system comprising at least one retarder having embedded therein a plurality of images and a rotatable polarizer (analyzer) with or without a reflector.

Claim 1 will be examined along with any one of the elected Groups I and II.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: it appears any special technical features of the above mentioned inventions relate to the separate features of the particular inventions, absent an allowable linking claim to the above mentioned inventions.

Groups II and I are related as combination and subcombination, respectively, and lack unity due to the fact that the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination because of the omission of the separate retarder/images details (see above explanation). Therefore, it appears that if any special technical feature is present it must reside in the separate features of the subcombination.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A). The respective images are contained in alternate areas; and
- B). The respective images are contained in successive areas.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claim 4 corresponds to species "A".

Claim 5 corresponds to species "B".

5. The following claim(s) are generic: at least claim 1 is generic.
6. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: it appears any special technical features of the above mentioned species relate to the separate features of the particular species, absent an allowable linking claim to the above mentioned species.
7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Ricky D. Shafer whose telephone number is (571) 272-2320. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
